The draw for the GCFA Mutton Bustin during the PRCA Rodeo will take place on SUNDAY, Oct. 7, 2018 starting at 2:00 pm. The GCFA Mutton Busting Committee will have a non-member/non-county resident draw for nights of rides. The committee will make a phone call to each drawn contestant. In the event that the contestant does not answer the phone call, there will be a voicemail left with a 5 minute call back time allotted before the slot is filled with another contestant.

Format:

We will draw 10 contestants for Thursday and Friday night. The top 4 contestants from each of those nights will have the option to come back and ride in Saturday night's performance (subject to another $20 entry fee) along with the top 2 contestants from the IBCA BBQ Cookoff Mutton Bustin' (subject to the $20 entry fee).

All contestants must be in required attire to compete in event. Protective head and chest gear are required and will be provided by the GCFA. If a child brings their own protective equipment, it must be approved by GCFA officials. No spurs or ropes' allowed.

Legal Guardian must accompany child at check in at the event as a Liability Waiver must be signed.

Entry form also available at www.gcfair.org or at the fair office.
